

Fidelis Oditah QC

QC 2003, Called to the Bar 1992

+44 (0)20 7696 9900

fidelisoditah@southsquare.com

Fidelis practices at the English and Nigerian Bars in a broad range of areas. In England, he specialises in chancery and commercial work, with emphasis on insolvency and restructuring work. He has acted and/or advised on virtually all major corporate insolvencies in the UK in the last two decades.

In Nigeria, his practice encompasses energy, projects, corporate and general commercial law. He has advised and acted for the Federal Government of Nigeria in a number of the most significant energy and power matters, and for many large and medium sized companies.

He has extensive commercial arbitration practice as counsel and also sits frequently as an arbitrator in a broad range of commercial disputes.

Areas of Practice

- Insolvency and Restructuring
- Commercial Litigation and Arbitration
- Banking and Finance
- Company
- Civil Fraud and Asset Recovery
- International and Offshore

Career

2004 Senior Advocate of Nigeria

2003 Appointed Queen's Counsel

2000 Oxford University, Visiting Professor of Law

1992 Called to the Bar of England & Wales
Bencher Lincoln's Inn

Memberships

Chancery Bar Association

Commercial Bar Association

Insolvency Lawyers Association

International Bar Association

ICCA
Nigerian Bar Association

Publications

Legal Aspects of Receivables Financing (Sweet and Maxwell, 1991)

The Future for the Global Securities Market: Legal and Regulatory Aspects (Clarendon Press, 1996)

Insolvency of Banks: Managing the Risks (1996)

Education and Qualifications

1989 Oxford University, D Phil

1989 Oxford University, MA

1987 Oxford University, BCL

1984 Lagos University, LLB

Prizes and Scholarships

Commonwealth Scholar (Magdalen College, Oxford University)

Interests

Music, Golf, Reading