glendavis@southsquare.com

Glen is a senior silk specialising in domestic and cross-border insolvency and restructuring, and in commercial disputes complicated by insolvency. His contentious and advisory commercial practice has extended over some thirty years to banking and financial services, insurance, shipping, company and partnership disputes, civil fraud and professional negligence.

His recent work has included issues arising from the collapse of Greensill Capital, energy company insolvency (Bulb, Simple), retail and hotel insolvencies, and investment bank (and other) special administrations, including Strand Capital, WealthTek.

Significant cases since taking silk in 2011 have included the first special administrations of investment banks (MF Global, Worldspreads), significant Gibraltar insurance liquidations (Lemma Europe Insurance, Hill Insurance), cases involving offshore trusts (Jersey, Guernsey) and financial structures (including Hong Kong/Cayman), cases arising from shipping collapses in Europe and the Far East (including Korea Lines Corporation and Sanko), major European restructurings including Bulgaria Telecom, cases arising from the Irish financial collapse, substantial claims against directors, and law firm and other partnership insolvencies.

Many of his cases have had an international dimension. He has appeared in the Courts of Gibraltar, Dubai, British Virgin Islands and the Cayman Islands.

Glen is appointed to act as a Senior Decision Maker for the Guernsey Financial Services Commission and has acted for the financial services regulators of the UK and of a number of offshore jurisdictions. He served for 10 years as a member of the Insolvency Rules Committee in the UK. He edits the Butterworths Insolvency Law Handbook, and has also advised the Government of Gibraltar and a number of domestic and foreign Government-related organisations about insolvency, company and regulatory law reform and implementation. He takes a particular interest in Africa and chaired the Africa Committee of the Commercial Bar Association.

Glen is ranked in the leading Directories under: Insolvency or Restructuring/Insolvency ('A very clever and senior silk who rolls up his sleeves and gets deep into the detail. A great choice for insolvency'; 'extremely hard-working, thorough and approachable'); Company ('Strengths: work ethic, availability, approachability, persuasiveness'); Offshore ('noted for his specialist knowledge in Guernsey and Gibraltar'). Previous comments have described him as a 'calm, measured and authoritative professional' who is 'excellent on thorny, technical disputes', and as 'extremely experienced and a real big hitter in cross-border insolvency litigation' and as 'An immensely knowledgeable and experienced practitioner' for Company and Partnership work.

Insolvency and Restructuring

Glen has acted or advised in connection with many of the major insolvencies of the past thirty years, from BCCI, Maxwell, Enron, and Northern Rock, through Landsbanki, Kaupthing, Lehman, Madoff, and MF Global to Greensill Capital. He has particular experience of insurance insolvencies, shipping insolvencies and special administration regimes (particularly investment bank special administrations, including MF Global, Worldspreads, Strand Capital and most recently, WealthTek).

Glen has substantial contentious insolvency experience, including obtaining injunctions and exercising coercive powers, public interest petitions, and directors' disqualification. He was involved in drafting the revised Insolvency Practice Direction.

Partnership insolvency work has included advising insolvency practitioner, bank and other clients regarding partner IVAs and other matters, particularly in the context of insolvent firms of solicitors.

Notable cases have included:

- The Financial Services Commission v Lemma Europe Insurance Company Limited BVIHC (Com) No 318 of 2012

Banking and Finance

Substantial banking, finance and financial services experience, including structured finance and an interest in sovereign debt. Particular expertise in client money and client asset issues. Has acted for the FSA and for the financial services regulators of a number of offshore jurisdictions, and regularly advises on the duties of directors and officers of regulated firms. He has a particular interest in the development of online media and payment mechanisms.

Cases have included issues arising in MF Global and Worldspreads. Appeared in Re Global Trader

Europe [2009] EWHC 602 (Ch), [2009] 2 BCLC 18, the first case to consider the FSA's client money rules.

Advisory work over recent years has included PPI and swap mis-selling claims, construction and enforceability of charges and guarantees particularly in the context of syndicated loans to finance property development, and construction of various swap agreements governed by ISDA terms.

Also advises on aspects of financial services regulation, particularly on duties of directors of regulated firms in the UK and in offshore jurisdictions. He is a member of the Guernsey Financial Services Commission's standing panel of Senior Decision Makers.

Commercial Litigation and Arbitration

Extensive experience as a commercial litigator, including urgent applications to obtain or set aside injunctions, and advising on privilege and disclosure issues. Arbitration experience both as advocate and as arbitrator, particularly in cases with an African dimension, including a recent substantial energy dispute as sole arbitrator. Also a CEDR-accredited mediator, with mediation experience as a mediator and as a participant.

Notable cases have included:

- Diwan Capital Limited (in liquidation) v Emirates Investment & Development Co PSC and others (in DIFC Court in Dubai)
- Hilton v D IV LLP and others [2015] EWHC 2 (Ch), entitlement to records of a limited liability partnership

Company

Glen's practice frequently involves questions concerning English or other common law companies legislation. He has experience of contested unfair prejudice petitions and scheme disputes. He regularly advises on shareholders' rights and directors' duties, particularly in the context of regulated firms, financial transactions and restructuring. He has advised on powers of local authorities and statutory corporations.

Partnership practice has included advising on and litigating about partnership disputes, and extends to Limited Partnerships, Limited Liability Partnerships, and various uses of partnership structures in the context of secured lending.

Civil Fraud and Asset Recovery

Substantial experience of advising on and litigation concerning asset recovery and civil fraud, particularly where the fraud has resulted in insolvency or where insolvency procedures can be utilised in pursuit of assets. This includes the use of compulsory powers available to office-holders to compel attendance for interview or the provision of information and documents.

Offshore

Much of Glen's practice has an offshore or international element. He has particular experience of cross-border insolvency and restructuring, including applications for recognition and letters of request. He has appeared in the courts of the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, the Dubai International Financial Center and Gibraltar.

Significant work has included issues concerning fund redemptions and matters arising in various jurisdictions from Gibraltar insurance insolvencies. Other experience has included cases with UAE, Irish, Jersey, Guernsey, BVI, Cayman, Hong Kong and Singapore aspects, and advising on the drafting of provisions of the insolvency legislation of an African state.

Insurance

Wide-ranging insurance and reinsurance experience over the years, including insurance regulation, mandatory PI insurance, the cross-border sale of insurance products, and claims against intermediaries. Has acted for the FSA in cases of unauthorised business. Also applications for, and challenges to, transfers of insurance business under Part 7 FSMA, and solvent insurance company schemes of arrangement.

Offshore insurance work has included numerous issues arising from insolvencies of Gibraltar-regulated insurers (Lemma Europe Insurance, Hill Insurance) and other work in this area has included:

- Re Digital Satellite Warranty Cover [2011] EWCA Civ 1413, extended warranty contracts are regulated contracts of insurance; [2011] EWHC 122 (Ch), public interest petitions arising from unauthorised insurance business

 - Re Eurolife Assurance (International) (Supreme Court of Gibraltar, 14 November 2007), first liquidation of a long-term insurer regulated in Gibraltar

Professional Negligence

Experience particularly of claims against auditors and insolvency practitioners, including issues arising from the collapse of the Marrache law firm in Gibraltar, and on various possible claims against auditors of regulated firms.

Trusts and Property

Glen has extensive experience of trust and property issues, particularly when complicated by insolvency. Property work includes advising on the position of landlords and familiarity with most forms of structured property funding and security arrangements. Trust work includes arguments about constructive, purpose and statutory trusts, duties and obligations of trustees, and the construction of trust instruments.

Notable cases have included consideration of client money trust issues, advice to Security Trustees, and advising in connection with transfers to Cayman- and Jersey-domiciled Employee Benefit Trusts.
